SAINT PATRICK

Sing a song for oul Zozimus, as always from the heart, your name will forever live, as a Dubliner Apart.

(GENTLEMAN)

Gather round me, & stop yer noise.

He came of decent people

DUBLIN

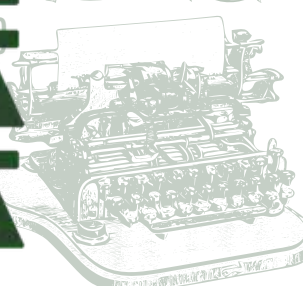

GATHER ROUND ME,
ALL YE LADIES FAIR, AND YE GENTLEMEN OF RENOWN; LISTEN, LISTEN, AND TO ME REPAIR, WHILST I SING OF BEAUTEOUS DUBLIN TOWN.

Defined as a temperate oceanic climate

ZUZIMUS

DUBLIN
A LONG LIFE TO THE MAN WHO INVENTED POTHEEN.

Gather 'round me, boys, gather 'round me. Well, yez all know St. Patrick was born in Bull Alley.

SONG OF

ZUZIMUS

THE UMBRELLA Social Hub

*Zozimus Bar is where Dublin comes to gather, a vibrant hideaway on the ground floor of Centenary House,
Anne's Lane, tucked beneath its famous canopy of umbrellas.
A bar built for good times & bold flavours.
Inside, the mood is playful, the cocktails are bright,
and the vibes are on repeat!*

*Today, ten years on, we continue to raise the Zozimus umbrellas in memory of the man, the myth, the legend, Michael J. Moran, who once stood on the very spot where our doors now welcome you.
He began each performance with:*

*Ye sons and daughters of Eire
Gather round poor Zozimus, yer friend;
Listen boys, until Yez hear
My charming song so dear.*

*We invite you to join our social hub under the umbrellas,
and carry on the tradition:*

*Ye sons and daughters of Dublin fair,
Step inside and join us there;
Where glasses shine and spirits play,
And simple pleasures lead the way.
From citrus bright to smooth and slow,
Each drink is made to glow;
So gather close and take your time,
At Zozimus is where nights unwind.*

Welcome.
